ORIOLES PLAN TO BUILD NEXT TO MERCHANTS

Completion of Long-Range Plan Seen 6 Months To Year Away

DETAILS OF HOTEL SALE TO BE DISCUSSED MARCH 9

The Orioles Home Association will build a new home adjacent to the Merchants' hotel, pending results of the sale of the hotel, it was learned last night.

Newly-elected President Ammon Heydt said the members will discuss the sale of the hotel further at a meeting March 9, but would not comment on the Orioles building plans.

Another member, who did not wish to be quoted by name, said the club will build on the property now being used by a local glazier and barber, which is west of the hotel at High and York streets.

He said it would take from six months to a year before the new home is realized because the hotel must first be sold and the architect consulted.

The Orioles voted to sell the hotel at a meeting the past Feb. 1.

IN ITS present quarters, the organization does not have sufficient space for parking. It also wishes to build bowling alleys.

As yet, no local brokers have been contacted to handle the sale. (Continued on Page Two)

Rotarians Get Taste Of Army Chow at Meeting in Armory

Pottstown Rotarians got a taste of Army life last night.

The club held its weekly meeting in the King street armory, where it was the guest of Company A, the local National Guard unit.

The 72 members attending ate a meal served G. I. style, then they listened to illustrated lectures by company personnel on the use of Army weapons.

Lt. Harold C. Baumann, unit commander and member of the club, supervised the military show and acted as host to his fellow Rotarians.

After the 6:30 p. m. dinner a short business meeting was conducted by Rotary President Walter F. Heise.

THE REV. JOHN B. FRANTZ, pastor of Trinity Reformed church and club member, conducted a brief memorial service for Earl Saylor Levenow, former Rotarian who died Wednesday night.

Company A men who served the meal to the visitors included M/Sgt. Bernhard, Lerner, Sgt. Forrest Drumheller, Sgt. Joseph Brandel. (Continued on Page Two)

Nobody around here is afraid of Friday the 13th hexes and jinxes! All five of these Pottstonians are celebrating their birthdays today and by standards of 50 years ago "should have stood in bed." But here they all sport broad smiles, and three of them are breaking the fateful day's most sacred rules. At left is Otis Hespeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hespeth, 809 Sheridan street, 15 today. Next, 12-year-

Friday the 13th Birthday Doesn't Bother Them

By MERCURY STAFF WRITER NORMAND POIRIER

Are you suffering from TRISKAIDEKAPHOBIA? Even if you were you probably wouldn't admit it. And with a name like that no one would blame you.

As a matter of fact, in a poll made by The Mercury yesterday, not one person in Pottstown came right out and said, "All right! I DO have TRISKAIDEKAPHOBIA!" And yet, when pushed far enough, most Pottstonians admitted that they did have traces of the disease that dates back to the mists of antiquity.

The phobia with the long name is really only "fear of the 13th."

And today's the day its victims break out in a rash because today is Friday, the 13th.

THE HOODOOS, voodooes, and hexes that used to go with the odd day have been worn almost completely away by time and science.

But there's still the slightest shadow of the old superstition that lingers in the minds of most persons.

Not enough to make them deliberately turn around at the sight of a black cat, or quiver at a smashed mirror, but just enough to give the whole day a feeling of uneasiness.

One policeman explained the modern attitude when he said, "Friday the 13th is always a good day for a policeman. People are alert. Less accidents."

Though occasional twinges of doubt probably were nestling in the backs of their minds, Pottstonians yesterday laughed full in the face of Fate's fiction.

Especially those who were born on Feb. 13.

Harry Ginter, 553 North Charlotte street, who's celebrating his 57th birthday today, said he wasn't the slightest bit superstitious. He'd walk under anything without any hesitation.

Edgar F. Minton, 232 Oak street, who is 51 today, said the day always has been uneventful for him. "Nothing has ever happened one way or the other."

MRS. MAY SLAYBAUGH, 389 York street, doesn't have any conscious superstitions, either.

"I'd walk under ladders or anything," she said. "Nothing's ever happened to me on the 13th," she boasted. Maybe it's because she was born on a Friday, the 13th.

Some people had a complete reaction from the old-time myth and claim now that the 13th is a "lucky day," if anything, for them.

Motor Patrolman Joseph Thees, 119 North Evans street, is one such. Thees has a son, Joseph, 12 years old today. And his wife was born on the 13th of September.

"It's a good day for me," he concluded.

There's a similar birth combination over at 336 Jefferson avenue. Judith Slonaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Slonaker, is 12 years old today. Mrs. Slonaker was born on the 13th of June. Both agreed that the supposedly fateful days always have been kind to them.

And neither has a pet superstition.

MRS. HOWARD HORROCKS, 4 East Fifth street, was very thoughtful before making her pronouncement. "Well I don't suppose I'd walk under a ladder or anything if that's what you mean," she said.

Mrs. Horrocks is enjoying her birthday today but exercised a woman's prerogative by keeping her age a secret.

Fifteen-year-old (today) Otis Hespeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hespeth, 809 Sheridan street, is another of those who think the 13th is lucky.

Nothing lucky ever happened to him on a Friday the 13th, but still he feels it's lucky.

JUDITH ANN FILLMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Z. Fillman, 130 Beech street, is one of the youngsters who kept the nurses busy in the hospitals on the night of Feb. 13th, 1941. But she saw nothing but happy things in store for her on her birthday, Friday the 13th or not.

Where Friday the 13th got its black reputation is still something of a mystery. But experts who delve into such things are fairly sure that the idea came from two separate places and times.

B-R-R-R: RAINS FREEZE, PUT TOWN ON ICE

Sidewalks, Roads Get Coating of Ice In Morning

DRIVERS AND PEDESTRIANS SLIP WHILE GOING TO WORK

Icy blasts brought a taste of Winter back to Pottstown and made driving and walking treacherous early yesterday morning.

Snow that had accumulated in the early morning hours combined with a light rainfall to make sidewalks and roads dangerous.

It took a careful driver to avoid a slip to the side as motorists hurried to work in the morning.

Children on their way to school found sliding along on ice a thrill, but some found it could be rough. More than one took a spill.

Playing arms were common on some Pottstown streets where the ice had not yet melted. With arms outstretched for balance, some fortunate pedestrians in a hurry to get to work managed to negotiate the tough spots. But some wished they had worn a pillow over the place that absorbed the shock.

BY THE AFTERNOON temperatures had climbed to the 40s, making it possible for the ice to melt.

The snowfall, which started late Wednesday afternoon continued on and off until shortly after midnight in most places.

Then some sleet covered the whitened ground, giving it a hardness. Later, light rainfall dropped on the sleet-snow combination.

Youth Hurt Seriously When Car Overturns

An 18-year-old youth was in "fair" condition last night in Memorial hospital with injuries suffered when his car overturned on Route 83 near Parkerford yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock.

The youth, Richard G. Kramer, Phoenixville, was driving south when his car ran off the road, onto the muddy shoulder and upset.

It was reported by Paul State Trooper John J. Coll, who investigated. The car did not hit anything.

The entire body of Kramer's 1941 sedan was damaged extensively in the crash. He apparently was alone when the accident happened.

The youth suffered a possible concussion and internal injuries.

Highway Committee To Consider Request For Street Repairs

A petition submitted by property owners on Wilson street asking for street improvement will be the number one topic on the agenda of the council's highway committee at its meeting Monday night.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden said there was little other important business scheduled.

The petition, asking improvement of Wilson street between Spruce and Logan streets, came as a result of the council's approval the past week of a $100,000 bond issue for street improvements.

According to the program, the $100,000 figure actually will result in $300,000 worth of new streets since the borough plans to pay for one-third the costs and the property owners will be billed for the remaining two-thirds.

Gulden said petitions from property owners would serve as a priority list in the program.

"This way we know we'll get our money back and we'll be able to get the full $100,000 worth of improvements," he said.

Most Pottstonians Back President in Rosenberg Case

Most Pottstown men and women yesterday praised President Eisenhower's decision on one of the toughest problems he's had to meet since his inauguration—whether to set aside the death penalty for a man and wife convicted of trying to give atom bomb secrets to Russia.

Wednesday, the President refused to set aside the penalty of death in the electric chair for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, convicted by a jury in New York and sentenced by Federal Judge Irving H. Kaufman.

Appeal to President Eisenhower was their last real hope of escaping the electric chair.

The 34-year-old Rosenberg, an engineer, and his 36-year-old wife will be the first persons in America ever to pay the death penalty in peacetime for spying.

A typical expression of Pottstown opinion came from Joseph J. Monaghan, 601 Spruce street.

"As far as I'm concerned, I'm certainly heartily in sympathy with Eisenhower's action."

MONAGHAN SAID he felt there already has been too much weakness shown by the US in handling spies.

"If he (Eisenhower) had shown any weakness here, he'd have found himself following in the same footsteps."

"I think we have to get tough about this kind of thing—show a little more iron and a little less mush."

Mrs. Elsie B. Fox, 898 North Washington street, emphasized that the Rosenbergs had been given a full trial.

"If they were convicted," she said, "they should suffer the penalty. A spy is a spy, in my opinion."

Truck-Car Crash Results In $200 Damage to Each

A collision between a truck and an automobile on Route 29 a mile south of Red Hill yesterday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock resulted in an estimated $200 damage to each vehicle.

Marlborough Red Hill Police Chief Arthur D. Simon said the truck, driven by Reuben Kremer, Slatington, Lehigh county, was traveling south on the highway and the car going in the opposite direction was operated by Earl Supplee, Perkiomenville.

The left sides of both vehicles were smashed in the accident.

Chief Simon said the truck was owned by the Keeler Construction company, Perkiomenville.

Soldier Introduced As Surprise Witness In Robert's Trial

WILKES-BARRE, Feb. 12 (AP)—A 21-year-old soldier from Ft. Knox, Kentucky, was injected as a surprise witness in the John Robert murder trial.

Pvt. John Novak, Edwardsville, said he found a bullet, "the top of a bullet," while sweeping up the Barre Apparel plant in Edwardsville where Robert had been employed. Novak said he found the pellet while working in the plant on June 28.

The Commonwealth attached, in its opening address to the jury on Tuesday, import to "a fourth bullet" found at the plant. The prosecution outlined, linked the fourth bullet with two removed from Mrs. Roberts and a third taken from the body of John shortly after the tragedy on June 10.

The surprise was evident in the courtroom when Novak took the witness stand.

THE SOLDIER, said Roberts, during a visit Novak made to the defendant at Wilkes-Barre General hospital, asked the young man to remove some photographs that Roberts kept at the apparel plant. Novak testified that Roberts told of the pictures being in a tool chest under a table. The soldier said he never found the photos. He testified that he gave the bullet that he found to his mother.

Judge Slates Trial Of Scandal Figures

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12 (AP)—The first of eight businessmen accused of taking part in the $1,800,000 scandal at Cecil National bank in Washington county will go on trial March 2 in US District court.

The men are charged with misapplication of $78,000 of the bank's funds. Chief US District Judge Wallace S. Gourley assigned the case to Judge John Murphy of Scranton.

The scandal was uncovered after John F. Wagner, the bank's cashier, shot himself to death in front of the bank's vault. The defendants are accused of giving Wagner checks which he honored although there were no funds on deposit to cover them.

Yes! Medical evidence shows Lydia Pinkham's thoroughly modern medicine cures a remarkably pleasing effect on the uterus—without the use of pain-killing drugs! The effectiveness of Lydia Pinkham's needs no proof to the millions of women and girls whom it has benefited. But how about you? Do you know what it may do for you? Try Lydia Pinkham's through the month. If you don't get the same relief from the pains and weakness of "those days," see if you don't feel better before and during your period!

Get either Lydia Pinkham's Compound, or her improved Tablets, with added iron! If you're troubled with "hot flashes" and other functional distress of "change of life," you'll find Lydia Pinkham's wonderful for that, too!

Snowstorm Sweeps
New England Area

BOSTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—A north-east storm dropped up to seven inches of snow over some sections of New England today and two storm deaths—both while shoveling—were reported.

James B. Humphrey, 71, retired Winchendon druggist, and William A. Morency, 60, Fitchburg office supply company proprietor, died while removing snow at their homes.

Numerous highway accidents were reported in Rhode Island as traveling became difficult.

Ski resorts of New Hampshire, Vermont and Western Massachusetts which have been looking for a fresh snow fall welcomed the new cover.

Clearing weather tonight was predicted by the Weather bureau.

Fire Damages Office
Of Picketed Company

KITTANNING, Feb. 12 (AP)—Fire damaged a one-story office building at the Comstock Fuel company tippie today while 200 United Mine Workers pickets watched. Two tippie supports also were damaged.

A State police-arson squad from Butler was called to investigate. Comstock, which bought the property Jan. 12 from the Kittanning Construction company, has been unable to operate the tippie since. Picketing began the next day.

Union officials claim Comstock is obliged to accept a union contract acknowledged by Kittanning construction. The company refuses.

A Comstock request for an injunction two weeks ago to restrain the picketing has not received formal action by Armstrong county Judge J. Frank Graff.

New York State has been the birthplace of four US Presidents.

Italian Senate Gives Priority to Measure

ROME, Feb. 12 (AP)—Over Communist opposition, the Italian Senate voted 165-111 tonight to give priority consideration to the controversial election reform bill.

The bill would give 65 percent of the seats to any group of parties winning over 50 percent of the vote. Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Government pushed it through the Chamber of Deputies the past month over stormy objections from left and right.

The Government wants the bill passed quickly so it can hold general elections between May 15 and June 7. It argues the measure will ensure stable Government by providing workable parliamentary majorities.

US GOVERNMENT DROPS CONTROLS ON MOST ITEMS

Order Marks President's Second Move to Free Economy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Government today scrapped Federal price controls over thousands of items including eggs, poultry, soap, gasoline, crude oil, newsprint and all rubber products.

The order, effective immediately, marks the Eisenhower Administration's second big move within a week toward restoring the nation to a free-market economy.

Simultaneously, price stabilizer Joseph Freehill announced that dismissal notices will be handed out Monday to about 2000 employees of the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS), effective March 15.

Freehill said another package of decontrol orders may be expected within a few days.

With today's order, only about 17 percent of the items going to make up the cost of living will remain under full control.

FREEHILL SAID the items newly freed from curbs account for about 15 percent of the Government's wholesale price index.

OPS officials predicted some price hikes will result from today's order, notably on gasoline, crude oil and tires and tubes. They said prices on other items will probably not be affected since many of them are already selling below ceiling lids.

Donald O'Connors Announce Separation

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 12 (AP)—Movie and TV star Donald O'Connors and his wife, Gwen, who married nine years ago when both were teenagers. Today announced their separation.

Gwen reportedly has told friends she plans to file for a divorce soon in Santa Monica.

Donald confirmed the break at the studio where he's just started a new picture. "Gwen and I have separated before," he said, "but up until now we have never discussed a divorce or consulted an attorney."

Donald has moved into an apartment. His wife and daughter, Donna, 6, remain in the family home. The O'Connors were married when he was 18 and she 17. Both were in high school at the time.

Sudan Wins Self-Determination in Pact

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 12 (AP)—Egypt and Britain formally agreed today to let the Sudanese choose their own future and Premier Gen. Mohammed Naguib announced the door was opened wide for "a successful understanding" of the withdrawal of British troops from the Suez canal zone.

Talks on Suez are coming very soon, Naguib said.

The final settlement of these two key problems in British-Egyptian relations could clear the way toward tighter co-operation between this strategic Moslem nation and the Western Powers in the Cold War, perhaps in a Middle East Defense command.

There was exultation in the foreign offices of Cairo, London and Washington. And a public holiday was called for tomorrow in the Sudan, a land of desert, forests and cotton fields that stretches from Central Africa to the Red sea.

A CEREMONIAL PARADE of celebration is to be held before Governor General Sir Robert

Eager Congress Awaits Van Fleet, Members Seek Answer to Stalemate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—Congress, in a "show me" mood, is waiting for Gen. James A. Van Fleet to elaborate on his assertion that the Communists in Korea can be smashed now by a general Allied offensive.

Members of three committees in the Senate and House are eager to question the retiring general of the Eighth army about his ideas for ending the Korean stalemate and about Asian policy generally.

When Van Fleet laid down his Korean field command this week he was asked by the Associated Press: "Do you think a general offensive in Korea can be successful at this time?"

"Certainly," he replied.

SENATOR HUNT (D-Wyo.), a member of the Senate Armed Services committee, said today the general's claims "are the reverse of information supplied by Pentagon spokesmen recently."

"I certainly will be interested in questioning the general in detail," Hunt added.

The chairman of the Armed Services committee, Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.), announced in Paterson, N. J., last night that Van Fleet would be called before the committee upon his return to the United States.

Regarding a United Nations offensive against the Reds, Saltonstall said he would ask Van Fleet "to spell out to us in detail just how he feels this might be done and what its expected results would be."

Rep. Short (R-Mo.), chairman of the House Armed Services committee, proposed that Van Fleet appear before a joint session of both groups.

FINE CLAMPS BAR ON STATE NEWS RELEASE

Governor Insists Measure Is Not Censorship Of the Press

HARRISBURG, Feb. 12 (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine ordered today that his office must clear all but "purely routine" news releases of State government activities.

He insisted, however, that no censorship was involved in the ruling.

The order brought immediate protests from various newspaper groups including the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers association.

"The order is not a form of censorship for the press," he said. "Newspapermen will be free to come and go as always. The departments will co-operate with them on any department activity."

THE ACTION, he told newsmen, was taken to block a practice by Government underlings "to lobby through newspaper publicity for legislation."

His directive to department and agency heads, however, made no mention of legislation. It said: "In the interest of securing greatly needed conformity to Administration policies in newspaper releases, you will please direct all publicity directors, effective immediately, to clear all proposed newspaper releases other than purely routine matters and all material prepared for magazines, radio, television and other information media through this office."

(Webster's New International dictionary defines censorship as the examination of "written or printed matter in order to forbid publication, circulation if it contains anything objectionable.")

Reached at Milwaukee where he is speaking at a Republican Lincoln day event, Fine said a similar order was issued during the 1951 Legislature.

District Attorney Uses Holiday to Interview New Witness in Jelke Vice Trial

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—The district attorney's office used a holiday from court today to talk with a blonde divorcee scheduled to be a fresh witness at Minot (Mickey) Jelke's vice trial.

She is 31-year-old Barbara Harmon, to whom Jelke allegedly entrusted the task of training "teenage call girl Pat Ward as a prostitute."

"Leave me alone, you bums," Miss Harmon snarled at photographers as she ducked into the district attorney's office with her handbag shielding her face.

She is expected to be the next major witness at the 23-year-old oleomargarine heir's trial on charges of procuring Miss Ward and two other girls for safe society playboys at up to $500 a night.

Miss Harmon spent about four hours in the office.

In his opening statement to the all-male jury the past week, assistant district attorney Anthony J. Liebler said Jelke turned Miss Ward over to Miss Harmon with the admonition: "She'll show you the ropes, tell you what to say and how to act."

Jelke, meanwhile, got into a traffic accident early today, the second principal in the case so involved in two days.

Clad in White, Roberta Shaner Is Bride of Walter Gutshall At Wedding Rites in Royersford Evangelical Reformed Church

Nuptial vows were exchanged recently by Roberta Shaner, Royersford, and Walter Gutshall, Phoenixville.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shaner, 137 Second avenue, are the bride's parents. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gutshall, 308 Locust drive, Phoenixville.

Scene of the wedding was the First Evangelical and Reformed church of Royersford.

Organist was Hilda Vander-slice, a sister of the groom. Vocalist Nancy Reppert sang "Because," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a soft, street length costume of white, with bracelet length sleeves and a peter pan collar.

Edged in beadwork, the bodice buttoned down neck to waist and she wore a dark, pearl trimmed hat upon her head. Her bridal bouquet was pinned to her shoulder.

Serving as maid of honor was Norma Shaner, a sister of the bride.

Milton Shanaman, a brother-in-law of the bride, was the best man.

The bride attended Royersford High school and worked for the E-Cut Knitting company, Royersford.

Her husband, a graduate of Robesonia High school, is employed by S. L. Shanaman, incorporated, Phoenixville.

The one undesirable feature of a covered dish supper is the cleaning-up, agreed the dish washers and driers of Girl Scout troop 4 after their supper last night in Grace Lutheran church.

Each Scout supposedly cooked the dish which she contributed to the meat loaf supper. Leader, Joyce Herrlinger, made the main dish and her Scouts brought all the trimmings.

On the table were three kinds of potatoes — mashed, scalloped and potato filling; vegetables, such as peas, carrots, corn, lima beans and beets, and two salads, cole slaw and tossed.

As dessert the Scouts devoured strawberry tarts and cookies.

The involuntary dish washer was Joan Russell assisted by Diane Sandquist, Anita Shaner, Joan Caleen and Suzanne Keeler.

The girls then played a game, "Sleep," which according to one of the leaders, is one of those games that could go on for years.

Those attending the supper were: Mary Alice McCabe, Joanne Leiser, Barbara Bartman, Brenda Smith, Donna Ewing, Joan Wager and Nancy and Donna Henry.

Leaders were Mildred Geist and Joyce Herrlinger.

Josephine June Dindino, Robert Zlotowski Wed in St. Aloysius Church

Double ring rites performed in front of a palm and carnation-decked altar in St. Aloysius Catholic church united Josephine June Dindino and Robert Zlotowski, 384 New Street.

The Rev. John Miller, read the service in front of close to 125 guests.

Escorted by her father, Anthony Dindino, the bride wore white lace over satin. Scallops edged her illusion neckline in an off-the-shoulder effect. Seed pearls crusted the scallop line. Her full-length skirt fell to a three-yard train. More of the tiny pearls trimmed the points of her long, tight sleeves. Her fingertip veil hung from a bonnet-shaped headpiece trimmed with pearls.

A gold cross suspended on a gold chain, given to the bride by her mother, was her only jewelry.

She carried a purple-lipped white orchid in her prayerbook. Ice blue satin was chosen by Rosalie Zlotowski, sister of the groom, for her frock as maid of honor. Six tiny buttons studded her strapless bodice.

Over her shoulders she wore a blue satin jacket which buttoned in a deep V to show the bodice's trim. It had long, tight sleeves. Yellow carnations were combined with stephanotis in her bouquet.

Elsie Ann Dindino, sister of the bride, was her second attendant. Though her gown was like that of the maid of honor, she had a bouquet of white and yellow carnations from which blue ribbons fluttered.

Anthony Zlotowski, who lives with his father in the YMCA, acted as his brother's best man. Cousin of the bride, Robert Fiorello, 724 North Adams street, acted as usher.

Open house was held at the bride's home, 316 Cherry street, following the wedding.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Anthony Dindino, wore blue with black accessories in her hosting duties. Mrs. Anthony Zlotowski came from New York for her son's nuptials. She chose a gown of pink and deep rose accessories.

Both mothers had corsages of yellow roses tied with silver ribbon.

The couple will return from their New York city honeymoon on Valentine's Day. The bride chose a black velvet suit for her trip. Yellow daisies were embroidered between the unpressed pleats of her skirt.

She pinned her white orchid to the fitted bodice of the black velvet suit. Black shoes and bag and a tan topcoat completed her outfit.

They will live with the bride's parents when they return.

After attending Pottstown High school, Mrs. Robert Zlotowski was employed by Pottstown Shirt company. She is a member of Maria Assunta Women's club.

Her husband works with Doehler-Jarvis corporation. He belongs to both Maria Assunta and Die Caster's clubs.

The couple announced their engagement on Christmas Eve.

RECREATION COMMISSION OFFERS INEXPENSIVE COMMODITY

Recreation as supplied by the Pottstown Recreation commission is one of the cheapest commodities on sale. Actually, to the biggest percentage of its users it is free — as it should be.

In the commission's recent published 13th annual report, total expenditures for 1952 were listed as $30,631.22. That is a nominal figure considering the number of children, youths and adults affected, and the time involved.

The little sum of 22 cents' dangling behind the 30 thousand is an interesting amount. Taken alone it probably could supply a treasure in memories to someone.

The wear and tear on a basketball used by four teams in the Saturday afternoon league at Bethany center is probably little more than 22 cents. There are other expenses — plenty of them — involved in making up an afternoon's fun for several dozen boys, but the overall rate is still far below most entertainment fees.

Or maybe that tiny sum was used toward the pay of a City Industrial Baseball league umpire last summer. The relaxation from daily routine is an important part in the lives of many young fellows who compete. Without their weekly ball game to look forward to lots of our athletes would become old before their time.

And possibly the night that 22 cents was spent a veteran in the Sunday School Baseball league hit the last home run of his career. He would be willing to pay much more for the pride he felt with that hit and the pleasant recollections it will provide when he retires to the sidelines for good.

THE COMMISSION'S schools and leagues are a breeding place for the future greats in baseball, basketball and other games. An outlet of physical expression is provided for those of junior and senior high school age who lack varsity ability. And the post high schoolers and old soldiers, who are gently fading out, have their fun in the senior leagues.

When the urge lingers but the body resists, the real sports keep their hand in the game by managing or coaching.

The men and women behind this great phase of community life deserve all the support available. Active recreation, not the kind of an easy chair and television set offers, can serve as a tonic for breaking up a bad case of monotony.

At present, five basketball leagues are being conducted by the commission. An estimated 500 youngsters and adults blend their playing, coaching and officiating talents on many afternoons and evenings of spirited play.

Bob Reis, in his first year as director of the commission, has offered a varied and extensive program. In addition to the team leagues, special activities have been held during the various holiday seasons.

DICK RICKETTS, SR., long has been a community leader in recreation and as director at the Bethany center has been a foremost guiding influence on Pottstown's youth.

As director of playgrounds, Mrs. Florence Manthorne may soon be taking on more work if the proposed Penn Village playground is okayed by the housing authority.

We've only scratched at the surface of the real work being carried on by the Commission whose members are J. M. Cresswell, president; L. LeRoy Johnson, vice-president; Leonard A. Hillwine, secretary-treasurer, and Leonard Hatfield and Charles Rohland, commissioners.

To support the recreation commission is to insure a peck of present and future happiness for anyone with a yen for some healthy athletic activity.

THE BASKETBALL NETS at Junior High gym have finally cooled off enough to touch. After the 121 point scorching they suffered Tuesday night it might be a smart idea to order an asbestos pair for the new gym.

All the coaches of the Pottstown high school system were invited to air their views on the new gymnasium plans with the school board yesterday afternoon. Everyone was pretty well pleased with the architect's drawings, although the question was brought up 'is 2400 enough seating capacity?'

Any doubts about the need for the new hall should be wiped out when Coatesville comes to town Tuesday night. All tickets have been sold out for weeks, but maybe next year the picture will be changed.

Upper Perk Can Tie Bears Again For Loop Lead With Win Over Bucs

If nothing else happens this evening in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill circuit, it's quite probable that Upper Perkiomen will deadlock leading Boyertown for the top rung in the loop.

While Royersford and Collegeville are pitted along with West Pottsgrove and Schwenksville, Boyertown sits this one outside the league and the Yellow Jackets host seventh place Spring City.

Golden Cubs Play Tall Monocacy 5

An ominous pair of six footers awaits Pottstown Junior High's cagers this afternoon when they invade Monocacy's Union Township school for a 3 o'clock game.

In the past, Coach Gene Kauler's quint has been able to haul their own against the big fellow as shown against Coatesville and West Chester.

Monocacy is playing for the first time this campaign but has already won four straight home games. Dave Cole, one of the tall boys scored four fielders in a recent game with North Coventry JHS.

The Norco's have won two out of three against the township five this season.

Pottstown will be aiming for its seventh win against four defeats, and is riding a four-game winning skid. Top scorer Paul Zirkel, who canned 18 markers at Downingtown Tuesday, will handle the center post. Bob Grow, Al Laws, Bill Ellis and John Barber are other starting candidates along with Ken Wensel and Bob Reese.

scored 30 points against Bridgeport.

The Whippets have lost two of three second half games, somewhat below their first half showing when only Pottstown and Coatesville defeated them. But tonight they can be expected to gamble for the big upset which would make their season a success.

Good has announced no plans to change his starting five of Ricketts, Mike Krickzy, Howie Bedell, Doug Moser and Bob Sutton. All the reserves are ready and willing to prove they can match the regulars in scoring, as they did in helping to roll up the record breaking score Tuesday night.

Pottstown's jayvees will try to keep their league slate clean against the Whippet junior varsity. Coach Bill McCabe has guided his Sophomores, plus one, to eight straight in the loop.

Only Bill Kerr, the team's steady and hustling influence, is a Junior. With him will be Merrill Shirey, Al Bodolus, Milt Wensel, Josh Sova and Carl Sundstrom all ready for starting service.

FRANCISCO, Feb. 12 (AP)—Joe Di Maggio today picked the New York Yankees to pound home first again in the American league baseball race.

Dick Ricketts Only 70 Points Short of Tucker's Record

Duquesne university's Dukes face the most formidable of their last five foes tomorrow when they meet DePaul in Chicago Stadium.

The Dukes round out the week-end Monday night against Bowling Green in a return game in Pittsburgh Gardens. Then only Geneva at Beaver Falls, Westminster at New Wilmington and Toledo in Pittsburgh Gardens remain on the Duquesne schedule. Coach Ducey Moore's team has a record of 13-7 to date.

DePaul's Demons have won 17 of 22 starts. Included are two highly significant wins over LaSalle—fourth-ranked team in the nation and unbeaten except for the pair of losses to Coach Ray Meyer's club.

The Demons have also beaten Oklahoma A&M, Cincinnati, Notre Dame and Chicago Loyola. They have lost to Oklahoma A&M, Manhattan, St. Louis, Bradley and Temple in a 71-66 upset in Philadelphia Tuesday night.

Coach Harold Anderson's Bowling Green Falcons, a 57-56 victim of the Dukes in Bowling Green early in the season, have compiled an 8-11 record to date. Notoriously a home court team, only three of the Falcons' 11 losses occurred in Bowling Green. Lawrence Tech and Miami of Ohio turned the trick in addition to Duquesne.

OFFICIAL DUQUESNE statistics reveal that Dick Ricketts, 6' 7" sophomore forward, is still leading the Dukes in individual scoring with an average of 22.1 points per game for 20 games.

Dick's total of 442 is only 70 short of the Duquesne high for one season of 512 set by Jim Tucker last year.

As a team the Dukes have scored an average of 70.1 points per game to 62.3 per game for their 20 foes.

score, 56-56, to give URW a chance in the overtime, but Jim Price scored four points and Denny Dennis two, to give Doeblers their winning edge.

Price was the top scorer in the game with 22 points. Dennis was not too far behind with 18. This pair scored 16 of their team's 20 points in the second period, but URW still held a 30-28 halftime lead.

THE LEAGUE'S best point maker, Bill Baver added 20 points to his total and now has 185, a lead of 30 over Price.

Harry Anderson and Jack Kurtz tallies 14 and 13, and Bedi came through with 11. The loss dropped URW into fourth place, only a few percentage points behind Coffee Cup.

The Copper built up a 40-26 intermission advantage and kept adding to it in the second half. Bill Missimer (20), Jim Petrucci (18) and Dick Powell (16) were the big men for CC.

Stan Swenk continued to riddle the nests, picking up 20 points. Bob Cannell followed with 12.

The first division handed the second division a couple of solid Sunday School league defeats last night.

Grace Lutheran posted its sixth win, 71-27, over Emmanuel. Transfiguration held onto second place with a 64-28 victory over St. John's.

The league leaders were in a rut for three quarters—a string of three 17s—but stepped out for 20 in the final frame. Don Grim's 20 points was tops in the game and his Grace teammates, Carl Missimer and Larry Romig had 12 and 10 respectively. Cal Swavely was Emmanuel's best with 13.

Russ Meyers and Harold Bauer split 40 points in spearheading the Transfig. win. Don Tyson had 14 in a losing cause for St. John's.

WEST POTTS GROVE (6-4) leads the Eagles by half a game for the circuit's third spot and the top Class C berth, and must win this evening to stay at the head of the class. Host Schwenksville (0-11) might give the Falcons trouble in their profile Paul Little goes berserk, but WP has overcome similar trouble before.

Royersford (5-4) will fall into a fourth spot tie with North Coventry, idle with a 5-5 slate, should it stray down upset road and bow to the Colts (3-7). The tiff is billed for the C-T gym.

Sox 2d Baseman Inks $18,000 Pact

CHAMBERSBURG, Feb. 12 (AP)—Nelson Fox, star second baseman for the Chicago White Sox, said today he had reached "a very satisfactory agreement" in signing with the Sox for the 1953 season.

"It was very satisfactory to me," Fox said. "We should have a pretty fair ball club this season. Vern Stephens should help us a great deal."

Stephens, acquired from the Boston Red Sox in a swap for three pitchers last Monday, will probably play third base for Chicago. He played short stop for Boston.

"My contract gave me a substantial increase over last year," Fox said. He added that the agreement would bring him about $18,000 for the season.

Fox, who lives in nearby St. Thomas said the White Sox are slated to go into Spring training at El Centro, Calif., Feb. 23.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

WHEN JIM FARLEY was postmaster general, an old family retainer shuffled up to him and said, "I've always been a good Democrat, and it's time I got some reward. How's for making me postmaster up in my home town?" "I don't see how I could bring that off," answered Farley. "After all, you can't even read or write," "Shucks, Mr. Jim!" protested the supplicant, "I didn't say I wanted to be assistant postmaster. I want to be postmaster!"

In the early 1920s, when Winston Churchill was temporarily rejected by the British electorate and retired to private life, he journeyed to Cannes for a rest. Unfortunately he decided to break the banks at the gaming casinos. Instead, he lost and lost. He still recalls that winter "Bernie" Baruch once asked him, "If you had to live your whole life over, would you do anything differently?" "I certainly would," declared W. C. "I'd play black instead of red at Monte Carlo and Cannes."

Soviet Mission Members To Return to Homeland
TOKYO, Friday, Feb. 13 (AP) — Eleven more members of the former Soviet mission in Tokyo, including two dependents, will leave for Russia shortly, Kyodo news agency reported Thursday. They reportedly applied to the British embassy here for visas to return home via Hong Kong. Their departure will reduce the once large Soviet staff to 44.
Russia has no diplomatic relations with Japan. The mission was set up under the occupation. Japan has not acted to force the mission to withdraw, but when members leave Japan they are not permitted to return.

New Floods Threaten Disaster Area
LONDON, Feb. 12 (AP) — Tens of thousands of troops and volunteers, battled to reinforce the dikes of Britain, Holland and Belgium today as an approaching zero hour brought grave threat of new floods. The three-nation alert to meet the ominous mounting of the season's highest tides coincided with violent blizzards which created havoc in our other countries—West Germany, France, Sweden and Denmark.
The blizzards, the worst in years, were in their fifth straight day in some places. England had its worst traffic dislocation in years. Only one main road remained open from Manchester northward to Scotland. Drifts 12 feet deep in places, blocked the others.
Along the Dutch, British and Belgian North sea coasts, devastated by floods and storms that took more than 2000 lives 12 days ago, a new threat arose from the Spring tides. These tides will hit their peak Sunday, Monday and Tuesday and if lashed by gales might break over weakened dikes.
A WHITE HOUSE spokesman said in Washington that millions of sandbags will be flown and shipped to Britain for possible flood prevention use.
General gale warnings were posted for the next 12 hours on the British East coast.
Along the British coast 24,000 servicemen and volunteers worked to fill in broken dikes and reinforce weakened places.
A 20-plane airlift rushed three million sandbags from the continent.

US Court Withholds Ruling on Trucks
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12 (AP) — A US District court withheld a ruling today on constitutionality of agreements between states on truck loads until the Pennsylvania Supreme court says whether the entire motor code is in danger of being wiped out.
At issue is the State's right to make reciprocal agreements with sister states which call for each party to honor the other's legal truck load limits.
Federal Judge Wallace S. Gourley pointed out that if the part of the motor code covering such pacts can't be separated from the code as a whole, then his court's ruling might make the entire Motor code unconstitutional.

Judge Gourley, sitting with Judges Austin Staley and Rabe F. Marsh, said the US District court will return to the case Feb. 23 after receiving the State's answer.

Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.—Benjamin Franklin.

William Delays Again

Was the slight deliberate?
In all of Pottstown's talks and action about cleaning up the magazine racks of salacious and smutty books, the Pottstown police department has been carefully avoided.
Although the burgess of Pottstown is a member of the church where the cleanup campaign was inaugurated, and may have been in the congregation when two fine sermons on the "smut subject" were preached by the Rev. Dr. Luther A. Krouse, never has Burgess Griffith been asked to clean out the stables.
Is the slight deliberate?

The salacious book issue was given cognizance by borough council. Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells was asked to consult Montgomery county District Attorney J. Stroud Weber on the subject.
District Attorney Weber, understandingly had no comment to make. It isn't likely that he had no thought on the matter. Mr. Weber has been more than active in cleaning up Pottstown. It is likely he thought it was a local issue—and Pottstown police should clean it up.

Any county law enforcement official could get good and tired doing the dirty work for Pottstown's police department, where nothing is done and thus criticism is avoided. Police think if they make no arrests, Pottstown may think there's no crime here!

Pottstown knows very well that Burgess Griffith knew all about the flourishing of horse race book-making rooms here, because a convicted embezzler made an affidavit to a local police officer saying he poured something like $14,000 in money stolen from his employer into the pockets of horse race room operators.

Pottstown knows very well Burgess Griffith knew why a horse race result wire was strung over High street. It was the only wire crossing the main stem. Did he raid the horse room?

District Attorney Weber had to come into Pottstown with his law enforcement officers to clean out these rooms.
Where was William the Delayer?

Pottstown knows Burgess Griffith knew all about that hell-hole called Club 100 that prostituted minor girls, sold them liquor. Did he clean up that throwback to Barbary Coast days?

No, District Attorney Weber and Liquor Control board enforcement agents had to come into Pottstown to padlock the running sore that gave Pottstown such a dirty name. Even after the Pottstown Ministerial association sought Burgess Griffith's help in a vice crusade, his answer was inaction.

It's unlikely that Burgess Griffith as "commander-in-chief" of the police department, didn't know anything about seven speakeasies cleaned up by Liquor Control agents here.

But did Burgess Griffith do anything about them?

Pottstown doesn't wonder why Burgess Griffith was by-passed in this latest smut deal.

Pottstown has learned it can expect no help from Burgess Griffith, despite his standing in a great church congregation, when it comes to enforcing the law.

Maybe the slight wasn't deliberate. But it's a sad commentary on local conditions and lack of law enforcement when Pottstown's ministers must go to the county or the State for help.

Burgess Griffith has set back Pottstown 20 years by his delaying tactics. He could redeem himself in the eyes of his public if he were to offer 100 percent cooperation.

Pottstown certainly is barking up the wrong tree when it asks District Attorney Weber to perform the borough's police work. The job is Burgess Griffith's. After all, a community is only as good as its citizens want it. And that goes for enforcement agencies.

Eliminate Waste!

The Federal government consists of a total of 2055 departments, bureaus, divisions, commissions, authorities, corporations, and other agencies.

Employees in some of these offices are duplicating the work of employees in other offices. Some are working on projects the Federal government should never have started. There is waste of money all along the line.

To balance the budget, the new Congress must eliminate this waste. A President pledged to economy can help separate the necessary from the wasteful. Budget-cutting is one of the first and most important tasks facing "Ike" and his Congress.

PUNKIN CORNERS, February 12, Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where Venus, the planet named after the goddess of love, will be brightest on March 7. What's the matter with Valentine's Day?

A Chambersburg motorist wrote a letter of apology to Martinsburg, W. Va., police because he crashed a red light there 25 years ago. Is that all he's had to worry about since 1928?

And say a reader wrote a Detroit editor asking if he knew everything. Wal, he knows better than to ask questions like that! Hopin' you air the same,

Critic of Women's Clothes Gets Slapped

Comments Not Wanted

To the Editor: In view of the fact that Southern Gentleman ("Not Dressed Like Ladies", Readers Say, Feb. 12) has taken the time to be very critical of the way the Pottstown girls dress, I feel that he possibly has not taken a good look at the southern girls attire.

Please tell me where you do not see women wearing baggy coats?

It happens to be the style all over the country. If the southern girls do not keep up with the styles, don't criticize us for trying.

Take my advice—keep your comments to yourself if you intend to stay in Pottstown. I find that is the best way to make friends.

If you don't like the way we dress go back down South and stay there. We will not miss you.

Spring City VERA

Where'd He Come From?

To the Editor: This is to that rebel who declared war on Pottstown women! ("Not Dressed Like Ladies", Readers Say, Feb. 12.)

Only the unintelligent would write an article like that one.

It is assuming much to believe he ever went further than a one-room school house, where they ride into town on a mule and tramp the streets barefoot.

He probably comes from a long line of "Oakies" whose parents still use snuff and smoke a corncob pipe.

I'm afraid our modern way of living has overwhelmed our boy from the hills. It's been only the last few years they are beginning to live down South, and only because of the advent of our factories.

They lived on cornpone and chittins and took their baths in a rain barrel.

Get on your mule and head for the land of cotton where they are still fighting the Civil War!

Bachelor Takes Scolding

To the Editor: Was "Bachelor" ("Welcome Playground", Readers Say, Feb. 11), ever a child, or did he just come from some unknown place of only adults? No wonder he's a bachelor. Who'd have him?

Was I really burnt-up when he said he tolerated but didn't like children. My son just left for service in the Army, and I sure hate to think it's for these kind he's fighting.

Remember, "Bachelor," these little children you dislike today are the soldiers who are going to make it safe for you to live in a free country tomorrow.

Better mind your manners! Some of the greatest men and women in the world were all "little nuisances," as you call them, once upon a time.

I sure hope you get your "peace" along with a piece of my mind.

'Spare the Garbage Cans'

To the Editor: There have been a lot of letters in The Mercury recently on Woodley, the garbage collector. Some have praised him and others have taken the opposite view.

When I consider the service my home gets, I find that in some ways he does a commendable job but in others he deserves the criticism some people delight in showering him with.

Woodley empties my garbage can like he should, promptly, twice each week. When there are holidays, he usually collects the day before. There is nothing to complain about there.

But the way Woodley's men throw the empty cans around can cause a lot of confusion. Sometimes I find our garbage can a half block away. The second lid to the can was lost a few days ago.

It seems that the workers on the trucks don't believe in putting things back where they got them. After they empty a can, they just leave it off the truck to get rid of it.

You do a good job in getting rid of garbage, Woodley, but please spare the garbage cans.

Plan Should Be Public

To the Editor: Burgess Griffith promised at the past council meeting that a traffic plan for the borough will be presented in the "very near future."

What's the secret? Why doesn't he let the public know all his secret plans? Is he afraid that faults will be found in them if he puts them up for public review?

After all, it's the public who is concerned when it comes to traffic problems. They should have a voice in approving the plan and suggesting improvements.

WASHINGTON

Powerful Farm Lobby

Lacks Central Authority

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—The depressed prices now threatening the producers of major foodstuffs have highlighted the fact that the supposedly all-powerful farm bloc on Capitol Hill has fallen to pieces during the period of wartime and postwar prosperity. They are feuding among themselves as never before instead of uniting for submission of a specific and strong program to President Eisenhower and Secretary Benson.

Like Eisenhower, Benson would like to deal with a committee or central body authorized to speak for the farmers in framing or modifying the existing system. But he has been unable to identify any group which he could recognize as representative of the nation's agricultural interests. So far he has resisted the attempts of the rival organizations to win him over to their viewpoint.

Once ranked with labor and the veterans as the most formidable and effective lobby at Washington, the farm bloc is now a muddled and splintered group. It cannot agree on plans to check the price decline, to force down the cost of things farmers must buy, to stimulate lagging export trade or to improve the lot of their clients.

IDEAL CHOICE: In fact, the disagreements within the major farm organizations—the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Grange and the National Farmers Union—largely account for Eisenhower's selection of Benson as Secretary of Agriculture.

Although long interested in cooperatives and marketing problems, the Utah man has not been identified closely with any of the squabbling, professional organizations. His neutral position made him the ideal choice.

He demurred mildly against accepting the job, giving four reasons: (1) Utah is not a great farm state; (2) better men could be found in the Midwest's corn-and-cattle country; (3) he had been for Senator Taft before Chicago; (4) he was a clergyman.

These considerations, however, only commended him to President Eisenhower. He did not want a professional farmer-politician.

DISCORD WEAKENS INFLUENCE: The discord among the farm organizations has weakened their influence on Capitol Hill to an unprecedented degree.

In the last session, for instance, both the Farm Bureau Federation and the Grange opposed a proposal for appropriation of $250,000,000 for the soil conservation payment program. Normally conservative groups, they did not believe that Uncle Sam should pay farmers for the ordinary upkeep of their investments.

But numerous members from farm states shouted that neither the Grange nor the Federation, although the oldest and largest organizations of their kind, could speak for the nation's farmers. And Congress voted the money in defiance of the two bodies, which have almost 2,500,000 dues-paying members.

The third farm group, the National Farmers Union, has only about 210,000 members. It represents marginal, one-crop farmers, and it is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. It is generally regarded as the more radical outfit, and usually supported the New Deal-Fair Deal legislative program.

Its influence has always been less than that of the Federation and the Grange, and will be even less under the Eisenhower regime. With former officials of Benson's department, it sponsored a pro-Stevenson movement known as the Committee for Agricultural Progress in the 1952 campaign.

Gossip in Gotham

PATRONS ENJOYING themselves in a popular East Side night club between midnight and 1:50 a. m. Wednesday were startled to see Pat Ward, central figure in the Jelke vice trial, occupying a table with Sam Chapman, recently convicted and given a suspended sentence after a vice trial of his own. They were accompanied by a friend of Chapman's and another girl named "Dusty."

Pat, the cynosure of all eyes, had switched from her court dress with the Quakerish white collar to a conservative black cocktail frock, and nonchantly brandished a long cigarette holder. Among the prominent café socialites who stared were Milton Berle and party.

The aforementioned Miss Ward, who is so young and publicly shy that she had to be protected by Judge Valente from the prying eye of the press, was seated next to the studio of artist Reginald March to pose for her portrait—accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Wisotsky, another publicity-hater.

The picture is for a crass commercial weekly magazine which also prints news and might be considered a branch of the

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

HOWARD G. has been happily married for 35 years.

"Mother died five months ago," Howard's married daughter informed me, "and since then Dad has gone all to pieces."

"He never even went back to his job after the funeral. Since my husband was in Korea, I moved back home to look after Dad."

"But he just sits around the house all day long, only coming to the table when I call him to his meals."

"He reads or listens to the radio, but that is all. Dr. Crane, I wonder if it might not be good for him to take a trip to California. One of my sisters lives there and wants him to visit her."

EVERY PERSON is entitled to be grief-stricken and desolate for a few days after the death of a loved one.

But no intelligent person should permit himself to moon around longer than a week, for further moaning and sobbing does no good for anybody.

Howard is acting like a fool. He is still an able-bodied man so he ought to be right back on his job.

He has no legitimate excuse to mope around any longer and play the helpless baby or the poor, abused father who wants to enlist further sympathy and coddling from his grown children.

Sometimes it is a son or daughter who refuses to get a job and who sits around the house, sponging on papa or mamma, despite being an able-bodied adult.

Then it behoves the parents to push the fledgling out of the nest, as a mother bird does, for the primary aim in child rearing is to equip youngsters to stand on their own feet, financially, morally and emotionally.

PARENTS ARE bad if they don't prepare their children to meet the real problems of life. They should tactfully get their youngsters coaxed into productive activity. If coaxing doesn't work, then shove them out.

Human parents often lack the good sense of the mother bird! The latter is duly tender and sympathetic when the fledgling is helpless, but no mother bird coddles an able-bodied youngster who has reached adulthood.

Occasionally, however, we meet an adult who tries to take advantage of his relatives, as Howard is doing.

Then it becomes wise for the children to try to get their father tactfully coaxed back into his normal duties again. If coaxing fails, then make it so uncomfortable that he is forced to return to them.

AMERICANS IN ROME write that Humphrey Bogart and John Huston are the talk of the Via Veneto. Their rugged drinking, fast driving and joint combative-ness cause raised eyebrows wherever they go.

The Baroness de la Bouillerie, the former Elinor Marcus, has arrived from Paris with her baby. Husband Henri, who remained behind to settle the details of the vast inheritance they received recently, will join her here in a few weeks. They're now completely reconciled after many months of bumpy going.

A Case of Courage...

Chaplain to Sail...

COURAGE—A lesson in courage was written by Earl S. Levensgood before he died Wednesday night. The Pottstown milk tycoon was given up by some of his best friends years ago. But he was so confident of a long life he even made arrangements to go to London, England, in May, to see Elizabeth's coronation! "Cushy," as he was nicknamed by his friends, suffered a heart attack that bedded him almost five years ago. His life was prolonged by cautious living, but he still attended many social functions, went to the seashore every Summer! He was at every Sunnybrook picnic of the Reading Consistory and recently sat into a card game at an outing of the Good Fellowship club, a group of Masons. After his heart attack, Cushy was found to have a blood clot in his right leg. That leg was amputated to add to his miseries. But he always looked to the future with strength and confidence. His case should strengthen some who complain about minor aches and pains.

CONVENTIONEER—E. C. Rope-

ter, 959 High street, returned this week from a convention of Uniflow Manufacturing company field representatives in Erie. He's the oldest of them, having sold his pump and water equipment for the past 29 years. On his way home, he stopped at Sunbury to visit relatives... Patricia Kratz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Oscar Kratz, Elverson, was on the dean's list at Elizabethtown college during the first semester. She recently was elected to the May court and is secretary of her Sophomore class... On the dean's list at East Stroudsburg State Teachers college were John D. Jacobs, Douglassville, and Ethel Blanche Moyer, Pottstown RD 1.

*BOTH WAYS OVERSEAS—Sons of

Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Rusnock, 574 North Keim street, are coming and going across two-thirds of the world these days. First Lieutenant Father Michael A. Rusnock, who is 29, recently was graduated from a five-week orientation course at the Army and Air Force Chaplains school, New Rochelle, N. Y. He's due home tonight for a short leave before going to his duty station at Yokohama, Japan.

Before entering the service, Father Rusnock was assistant rector of St. Charles Borromeo church, Pikesville, Md. He was ordained by the Most Rev. Archbishop Francis P. Keough at the Baltimore cathedral in 1948 after completing his studies at Mt. St. Mary's seminary, Emmitsburg, Md. While he is about to leave, another son, 25-year-old Edward Rusnock came home only recently from Germany to be discharged from the Army. He spent a year in Helmholtz, Germany, as Army sergeant with a headquarters intelligence unit. While in Germany, he had a reunion with another brother, 22-year-old Bernard Rusnock, who's still in Germany. A fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Rusnock, Pfc. Stephen Rusnock was killed in action on Luzon in the Philippines during World War II.

NEW-STYLE RAIN CAPES—It was no fashion show, but the sisters of St. Aloysius convent on North Hanover street could be seen yesterday wearing the rubberized rain capes that they got this year for the first time. A spokesman for the convent and parochial school where they teach said the capes are light in weight but very effective in protecting the sisters' clothing. The rain capes are not universally worn by nuns, and those at St. Aloysius consider themselves fortunate in getting them. The sisters still use umbrellas but no longer have to depend on them entirely.

*ON WAY BACK—J. Albert Whitacre, of the Pine Forge Whites, is returning this way after a vacation in St. Petersburg, Fla.... Airman Third Class Frank J. Levensgood, son of Mrs. Elzabeth Levensgood, 247 Queen Street, has been transferred to Olmsted Air Force base, Middletown, from Keesler Air Force base, Miss. He has been assigned to the light service section as a control tower operator. He is a graduate of Pottstown High School in 1951... Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 12 — Surprise! Joan Crawford just moved to Paramount. There she'll do "Lisbon" right, quick—with possibly Bill Holden as her co-star. Joan has already "set up house-keeping" in Betty Hutton's former dressing room.

The Jeff Chandlers are on the verge of a divorce again. This would be "three strikes — and out!" "The White South" the Alan Ladd star for which he had already filmed reels of celluloid in the Antarctic, becomes "Hell Below Zero," and "Red Beryl" recently finished by Alan in London, emerges as "The Big Jump." After all the publicity, Warners is changing the title of "The Grace Moore Story" to "So This is Love." It always was love of her life (starring Kathryn Grayson) can't possibly portray the romantic antics of that fun-loving, life-loving gal. Looking over the male members of the cast for the Moore yarn, we doubt if the picture could be on the sexy side at all!

IT ISN'T Dean Martin's ankle that's bothering him — it's his back. In the midst of a goshawful ache, he eulched, "I came to California for rheumatism — and got it!" Hey, Dean! Get an earful of a hand-singer called Russ Taylor (still imitating you from the Hollywood Cingrill) — and have a laff. S'funny — but car-bons of famed crooners never seem to learn they don't get to the top of the heap that way! Small scoop—Well known scenarist, Alan Vincent has authored the play, "Sight Unseen" which goes into rehearsal on Broadway next month.

MUSICAL COMEDY star Valerie

Bettis (who recently staged Rita Hayworth's movie dance numbers) will star in this straight dramatic show. Vincent was bowled over at the way Bettis delivered her lines. Pat Wynmore writes she and Errol Flynn are having a ball. Just left Switzerland for Italy where Flynn, well again, resumes his screen toil in Venice. Pat's delaying her trip home—thus blasting the rift rumors (not here) flying around... Errol's many enterprises (films, real estate, hotels) will be incorporated as "Flynn's Facilities."

Virility Note: Gilbert Roland is growing his own goat for the swashbuckling Frenchman he'll play in "The Diamond Queen," with Arlene Dahl and Fernando Lamas... It's J. Coogan's definition: "A Hollywood producer is a man with a worried look—on his assistant's face!"

Pottstown Owls Seat President, 10 Other Officers, Trustees

Samuel S. Garber Sr. was installed as president along with 11 other officers and trustees during ceremonies of Nest 1333, Order of Owls, last night.

The five-man ritual team of the nest conducted the installation.

Other men who went into office formally at the meeting included Edward G. Wentzel, vice president; Earl Graham, invocator; Eugene Hohl, vanguard; Allen G. Evans, sentinel; John J. McCartney, picket; Russell D. Mauger, treasurer; Malcolm C. Shirey, recording secretary; and Edward McEvoy, financial secretary.

Three trustees also were installed. They were William Brown, Charles Schoch and Edward Gorman.

All officers and trustees were elected at the January meeting.

PRESIDENT GARBER announced during the meeting that the charter is open for new members until April 1. Three applications were received and four members admitted last night.

Preliminary plans to raise money for the Owls' next Christmas party were discussed at the meeting, which was attended by 32 members.

Stevenson Appointed To Lecture Position

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 12 (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate in 1952, has been appointed to give the Godkin lectures in Government at Harvard university in 1953-54, the university said tonight.

The dates of the three lectures, which are open to the public, have not yet been announced.

The lecture series was founded in 1903 in honor of E. L. Godkin, editor of the New York Evening Post and The Nation during the 19th century.

No One's Afraid of Friday the 13th

Way back in time, Friday was devoted to a Norse goddess and was sacred to her. Woe betide anybody who started a project or trip on that day! And the connotation stuck for centuries.

The Crucifixion years later of Christ on Friday didn't add to the day's reputation.

The trouble around the number 13 started far back in the days of primitive man. This husky mental giant discovered that three would make a triangle and four would make a square.

After hundreds of years he advanced to the point where he could make combinations with and split numbers like eight, 10, or 12.

But with 13 he got nothing but mental blocks. He later learned to rationalize and decided it was a disreputable number.

THE ANCIENT Babylonians picked up where he left off. They devised a moon calendar with 12 months. But this was never enough to go around so they would add a 13th month every so often.

They came to regard this added stanza was an ill-omened time.

The idea has persisted. Now, modern man will take hotel room 8, 10 or 12, but not 13, especially if it's on the 13th floor.

Where the salt, ladders, black cats, mirrors, three-on-a-match, and rabbit feet come from will probably remain a secret until some thesis-writing Ph.D. student comes along. But one thing's sure.

They can't blame the three-on-a-match superstition on the cavemen.

opinion. To me, that is a very serious thing."

AMONG THOSE in the minority was Malden H. Watson, 833 South street, a self-employed carpenter.

He declared, "I don't believe in the death penalty at all."

He said he didn't think the execution of two people would do much, if anything, to prevent further spying attempts by Russia.

He said he was opposed to the singling out of two people to give an extreme penalty, while others avoid justice.

George H. Boone, 779 North Charlotte street, an inspector for Neapco Products, incorporated, said:

"Personally, I think he's done the right thing. That's something that concerns each and every one of us. Those secrets, if they got in the wrong hands, could be disastrous."

MRS. JACOB McCULLOUGH, 245 West King street, said:

"I really feel he did the right thing."

"I think it (the spying) was a worse than murder. How many of our boys could be murdered in a war as a result of that kind of thing? That's the same as selling out the country, isn't it?"

"I know my husband feels the same way—they got just what they deserved."

Mrs. Earl B. Zimmerman, 968 Terrace lane, declared, "I feel the same way as President Eisenhower."

She said she felt the extreme seriousness of the offense warranted the extreme penalty, and said she thought the Rosenbergs' execution might discourage others from trying to spy.

Pottstown Optimists Mark Seventh Year

Seven years of membership in Optimist International was celebrated by the Pottstown Optimist club last night.

The club members, wives and guests gathered at the Maria Asunta club, 379 Cherry street, to observe "Charter Night" with a dinner followed by dancing.

The local club had as guest speaker for the occasion the Rev. Clarence Rahn, a charter member of the Reading Optimist club.

President LeRoy H. Keyser presided at a short business meeting. L. Stanley Mauger was toastmaster.

Elwood Angstadt presented a membership trophy to the club at the meeting. It will go to the winner of a campaign for new members to be launched soon.

France Urges British To Back Pact Change

LONDON, Feb. 12 (AP)—France today urged Britain to back proposed changes in the pending European army pact. They are designed to make easier its ratification by the French Parliament.

Britain is not a member of the six-nation defense group, officially called the European Defense Community (EDC). However, French supporters of the treaty have constantly sought closer British association with EDC.

French informants said the proposed revisions were laid before British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden by French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault at the opening of a two-day conference.

The changes are aimed at calming French fears that, in the absence of water-tight British pledges to stand by France, a rearmcd West Germany might one day withdraw from EDC and dominate Europe.

Navy Gives Details of Sub Experiment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Navy today announced the names of 23 human "guinea pigs" sealed aboard an old World War II submarine in a two-month test.

The Navy said members of the volunteer crew aboard the USS Haddock at New London, Conn., are undergoing identical conditions expected for the crew of "the world's first true submersible—the atomic submarine."

Details of the experiment were disclosed yesterday.

The Navy said in a statement that the crewman have games, hobbies, phonograph records and movies—but there is no mail from home, no radio or television entertainment.

"They will not see daylight, barring emergencies, during the two months the operation is scheduled to run," said the Navy.

Business Club Gets Eye-Witness Account Of Iron Curtain Life

Pottstown's American Business club heard an eye-witness account last night of life in occupied European countries.

The picture of life under a conqueror's heel took shape during a question and answer session conducted by Paul H. Grim, supervising principal of North Coventry schools.

Irmgard Drenckhahn, a native of Germany, and Margarete Suchomel, a native of Austria, both of whom are now exchange students at Norco High school, answered questions about European life put to them by Grim.

Walter McCurdy, president, conducted the business portion of the meeting. A cash contribution to the Valley Forge council, Boy Scouts of America, was approved.

ABOUT 45 MEMBERS attended the weekly meeting held in the Elks home.

The club will conduct an attendance contest beginning next week and lasting for the next six weeks. Members will divide up into four teams to be captained by a man whom the president will appoint.

A US Senator must be at least 30.

Norco Grangers Hear Feed Representative Talk on Poultry Care

North Coventry Grange members picked up some new ideas on the care and feeding of chickens last night.

The grangers heard Paul Detwiler, Pottstown feed representative, tell how to care for a small flock on an average farm during their "Poultry Night" program.

Detwiler supplemented his talk before the 37 members attending with picture slides taken on successful poultrymen's farms. The slides were accompanied by recorded commentary.

The feed man told his listeners that the way to produce prolific pullets is to supply them with a balanced diet in clean surroundings while letting them exercise on an open range until ready to lay.

WAYNE BICKLE, Grange overseer, presided at the business meeting in the absence of Master Jack Walters. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ayers served refreshments after the program.

The Grange will hold a "Winter picnic" Saturday in the Grange hall at 6:30 p. m. Each member will bring a picnic style lunch.

Battle Test Makes Red Officers Flee

MUNICH, GERMANY, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Voice of America said tonight that a recent battle-readiness test among Communist Hungarian troops, mistaken for real action, resulted in one suicide and the flight of several high-ranking officers.

When the troops were issued live ammunition and ordered to battle stations, the secret police officer assigned to the regiment changed into civilian clothes and disappeared, the broadcast said. The political commissar ripped off his special badge and fled too, along with many of the higher ranking officers, it said.

The sergeant of the political instructions detachment committed suicide, Voice of America said. Finally, the troops were quieted by police riot squads who explained it was "all a test," the broadcast said, adding that the officers are still at large.

freezing as it struck and making the slippery conditions later in the day.

Better to be cautious than late, was the reasoning some motorists used as they arrived on the job a few minutes overdue.

Slight accidents in the area were partially blamed on icy spots in the road by the drivers involved.

CHUCKLING IN the background of the Winter onslaught were the firm groundhog day believers. The woodchuck predicted six weeks more of wintry weather the past Feb. 2, when he emerged from his hole and noticed his shadow.

But fairly mild days since the prediction left the anti-groundhog faction pool-pooling such superstition.

Yesterday the temperature managed to edge up to 41 in the afternoon, but by 8 p. m. had dropped back to 39. Late last night the mercury was continuing to drop, notching 28 in the early morning.

Today, the weatherman predicted, the weather will be partly cloudy. The temperature will be in the high 30's in the more northerly environs, but will be in the low 40's in the southeastern portion.

Tomorrow, the weatherman said, it will be generally fair and slightly milder in the afternoon.

House Democrats Flail Benson Policy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—House Democrats ripped into Secretary of Agriculture Benson today, asserting that he has failed to take action to halt falling farm prices.

Representative Wier (D-Minn.) said Benson's policies are in conflict with President Eisenhower's farm policies.

Representative McCarthy (D-Minn.) said that what Benson said in a speech at St. Paul last night was a matter of grave concern for the nation.

The Agriculture Secretary pledged support of the present two-year law pegging price supports at 90 percent of parity, but said the nation eventually must work toward a freer market, and must avoid subsidies and supports for uneconomic production.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Japanese Pearl Growers association recently sent a check for $1000 to the Denver sanatorium and hospital for Jewish Consumption in appreciation for the recovery at the sanatorium of James Kanai, one of its members.

Kanai recovered from tuberculosis after 11 months at the sanatorium. The check was sent to Joseph Goldstone, president of the Imperial Pearl syndicate of the United States and Chicago board leader of the relief society for the Denver sanatorium.

This Little Piggy Had Seven Feet at Market

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Alta., Feb. 12 (AP)—A pig with seven feet was brought to market by a farmer recently. The pig had the usual four legs, but there were two feet each on the front legs and on one of the rear legs. The pig appeared healthy in every respect.

86-Year-Old MD Still Puls in Full Day's Work

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 12 (AP)—After 62 years of medical practice, Dr. Charles Reitz, 86, oldest practicing physician in the city, still puts in a full working day at his office and takes emergency calls on weekends. He accounts for his vigor and appearance, which belies his years, simply by saying, "Don't worry—don't hurry; that's all there is to it."

Dr. Reitz put in ten years of horse and buggy practice before he moved into the city and bought a one-cylinder Cadillac in 1900. Now he's delighted to see medicine in a sort of golden age of new discoveries to fight disease. He remembers when diseases like diphtheria, influenza, pneumonia, diabetes and typhoid fever were generally considered fatal.

Dodge Plans to Wed Gregg Sherwood

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 12 (AP)—Word that Horace Dodge 2d will marry actress Gregg Sherwood here Saturday caused a minor lifting of eyebrows in the social setting of the social set.

The surprise did not concern Dodge's fifth marriage so soon after his fourth spouse, the former Clara Mae Tinsley, divorced him. She obtained the decree Wednesday in Louisville, Ky.

What caused eyebrows to go up was the fact that Dodge had not applied for his marriage license here and Florida has a three-day waiting law. This means that unless the wedding is planned elsewhere, or unless some special dispensation is obtained, the earliest date on which the couple can be married is Sunday.

"They have not applied for a license nor have they requested a waiver of the law," said county Judge Richard P. Robbins.

No Collapse Is Seen In Soviet Russia

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—Averell Harriman, former ambassador to Russia, said tonight he doubts Soviet anti-Semitism is a sign of an impending internal collapse.

Accepting a B'nai B'rith award for humanitarianism, Harriman told a meeting of the Jewish group:

"Now I have noticed that some people interpret the Kremlin's anti-Semitic campaign as a sign of impending collapse. I doubt this very much."

"While we can recognize that anti-Semitism reveals the existence of strains and stresses within the Soviet dictatorship, we cannot expect it to crumble in the near future."

During World War I, the population of Alaska decreased sharply because of the growth of population was not resumed until about 1924.

Nine Czechs to Be Tried By Reds on Spy Charge

VIENNA, Austria, Feb. 12 (AP)—Nine Czechoslovaks go on trial tomorrow in Ostrava for alleged spying for two former members of the British embassy in Prague, Prague radio said tonight.

The group is accused of taking orders from Robert Neal Gardener, former second secretary of the British embassy. Gardener was caught by Czech police in December, 1951, while he allegedly was collecting secret information from a hiding place.

Gardener was asked to leave Czechoslovakia at the time. A British embassy secretary, Daphne Mains, was shot and wounded in the same incident and also was ousted by Czech authorities.
